

MEMORIAL CEREMONY SCHEDULED FOR MAY

The families, friends and comrades of Kentucky's fallen officers will gather during the Kentucky Law Enforcement Memorial Foundation's annual ceremony Wednesday, May 21 at 11 a.m. The ceremony will focus on the contributions of law enforcement to all Kentuckians, as well as honor the officers the commonwealth lost in the line of duty, including the highly publicized and tragic ambush murder of Jason Ellis. Ellis was shot on May 25, 2013 while attempting to clear debris on an interstate off-ramp on his way home from his evening shift.

The ceremony will be conducted at the Kentucky Law Enforcement Memorial, located at DOCJT in front of the John W. Bizzack Law Enforcement Training Complex on Eastern Kentucky University's campus.
